By Thomas Ross, A. M.

This small Volume, being an Abridgment of Univeral History, and of Chronology for the first 4004 years of the world, will be found useful, not only to those who attend the Lectures, of which it contains the heads, but also to persons who are already acquainted with history, and whose memory requires only to be refreshed respecting leading facts, and the order of time in which they have taken place. It will also enable those who have read no other system of history, to acquire a considerable knowledge of the great characters of antiquity, and of the scenes in which they have been engaged.

Some of the first Medical Characters in this City have, with that candour for tabial they are so eminetly distinguished, prescribed your Lozenges with the greatest success, and it is certainly the most efficacious vermifuge I have ever used. I may also add, that some of the Professors of the College mention it as the most effectual in Worm Cases of any Medicine they are acquainted with. I have some worms in my possession, voided by a son of Colonel Rudyard, by taking your Lozenges, after every other medicine had failed; which worms are of a very singular and uncommon form. One of them has the appearance of a crab, and two resembles the catterpillae. I have promised them to the Professor of Midwifery, to exhibit when he Lectures on Worms. No person, to whom I have shewed them, stems to know to what species they belong.

DECEMBER 2. FRENCH JOURNALS.

The French journals which have reached us are of the (1st, 2d, and 3d Frimaire), 22d, 23d, and 24th Nov.

They contain several official dispatches from the armies which will be looked to with fome anxiety, as the reception given by them to the news of the late changes was looked for as being decifive of the permanence, for a little time at leaft, of the power of Confuls. These dispatches relate also to some advantages gained by the army of the Rhine; to the operations against the Chouans; and to the war in Italy as already stated.

Every thing feems to have been quiet in Paris at the date of these papers. ARMY OF ITALY

OFFICIAL. Head-Quartest at Pietra, 24th Brumaire, Nov. 15. The enemy advanced on the 15th Brumaire, Nov. in confiderable force against General St Cyr at Coni. The Commander in Chief immediately united the divifions of Lemoine and Victor before Mondovi. General Grenier, who commanded the left wing, occupied the camp of Dalmazo, from which he advanced on the 17th (November 8), against Tenda. On the 19th (November 10), this General proceeded to return to his camp at Dalmazo, and the same day fought a very obstinate battle. He then proceeded to Demont, beand the ridge of mountains which cover the debouches of Tenda and the valley of Stura. On the 20th (Nov. 11), the center of the army was attacked with their polition. The combat was renewed on the 22d (Nov. 13), and the enemy, though reinforced with 12 battalions of grenadiers, found the same resistance. Their left fell back with lofs, and night feparated the comba-impetuofity.-The French were inferior in cavalry and infantry. Notwithstanding this disadvantage, their con-flancy and their firmness maintained them victorious in

The Commander in Chief finding his ammunition exhausted, and foreseeing new attempts on the part of the enemy, quitted Mondovi. He proceeded to join the corps of St Cyr, who after a glorious affair at Novi, took 400 prisoners and 5 pieces of sunon.

ARMY OF THE RHINE: Extract of a Letter from the Commander in Chief of the Army of the Rhine, to the Minister at War.

Head-Quarters General, at Manheim, 26 Brumair (Nov. 17.)

Yesterday, the 25th, I caused the enemy to be attacked on the whole line from Phillipsburgh and the Neckar. The 1st division, commanded by General Delaborde, advanced on the right towards Neulasheim, where it attacked the enemy with the greatest intrepidity, and drove them to Vaghanfel, after taking 1000 prifoners, who formed part of the garrison of Phillipfburgh, and five pieces of cannon.

The 16th demi-brigade of the infantry of the line, the hussars of the 2d regiment, and the 12th and 23d of cavalry, particularly distinguished themselves, as did alfo the cuirafters commanded by General d'Espagne, and the light artillery under the command of Legras,

The brigade of the same division on the left, proceeding to Kizloch and Veissenthal, drove the enemy before it as far as Graben .- The result of this movement is that Phillipsburgh is again blockaded.

The 2d division, commanded by General Decaon, attacked towards Roth with equal success. The brigade on the right advanced with rapidity by Mingelsheim to Obstart. Foreseeing the difficulties which this oclumn would have to overcome before it could carry the strong positions occupied by the enemy on the heights before that village, I pushed forwards with two regiments of cavalry of the referve, and one company of light artillery, first to Vaghansel by Veissenthal, and Hambruch, and afterwards to Foretz and Bruchfall, from which the enemy were expelled and purfued as far as Bretten. During the same time the brigade on the left advanced as far as Gotcheim -The referved cavalry under the command of General d'Hautpoult, feconded in a complete manner these operations, and particularly the carabiniers. The 3d division, commanded by General Ney, deftined to ascend the Elfatz, notwithflanding the superior forces opposed to him, had no less fuccels. After an oblinate combat he took pofferfion of Vaibitatt, Epinges, and Sentzheim. The 4th division, under the command of Baraguay d'Hilliers, was ordered to clear the right bank of the Neckar, and to advance against Dilsberg and Langenzel. This division also completely executed its movement and repulsed the enemy in all points. Thefe three last divisions took about 200 prisoners. Our loss on this occasion was inconsidera-ble. That of the enemy, on the other hand, was very great. We have taken from them, befides 1200 prifo ners, five pieces of cannon, feveral caiffons, and fome baggage. All the troops displayed the greatest courage. Both the officers and foldiers are entitled to the highest

BATAVIAN ARMY.

Extract of a Letter from the Commander in Chief to the French Army in Batavia, 26 Brumaire, Nov. 17.

I received the papers and dispatches which you fend me by Damoulin, Chief of Brigade. I immediately communicated them to the army who feemed exceeding ly well fatisfied at the happy prospect they hald out for our Republic. Whatever may be the dangers necessary to be furmounted, they will not be fuperior to our courage and constancy. The army has taken the oath of fidelity to the Republic, founded on the three great bases of Liberty, Equality, and the Representative fystem.

THE CHOUANS. Extract from the Correspondence of the Commander in Chief of the Army of England.

Angers—21 Brumaire, Nov. 12.
On the 10th Brumaire (November 1), General of Brigade Duffresse gives an account that an assemblage of 400 Chouans, having fuddenly collected at Puit-Bonnet, he affembled on the 11th and 12th (the 2d and 3d of November), about fix hundred men, and advaned to the bridge of Nueil, which about two thousand Chouans had barricaded with carts. Our troops found means to destroy the barriers, and having charged the enemy with impetuolity, put them to flight. The re-fult of the victory is the dispersion of a numerous band of Chouans. Five hundred of them were killed, 12 or 1300 wounded, and one only was taken prisoner—the rest fied. We had 20 killed, and 42 wounded—among the latter feveral officers.

Letter of the Minister for Foreign Affairs to Foreign Minister Sir-I have the honour to inform you, that the Confuls of the French Republic have just taken into their hands the reigns of Government. Our foreign agents are going to receive instant powers to notify the same to the Governments where they refide. The political relation of France with other nations, the diplomatic relation of its Government with other Governments, remain the fame. The fignal re-union of all wills, feconded by the enlightened, energetic, and unanimous direction which will be given to the public force, in founding the fate in future of the French Republic, should of itself exalt, in the eyes of foreign Governments, the value of those political relations which at-" REINHARD." tach them to us.

PARIS-2 TRIMAIRE, NOV. 23.

We are affored the Confuls have already made an exception among the individuals comprehended in the decree of transportation in favour of General Jourdan, and we flatter ourselves they are too humane not to make some more.

General Championnet had offered to refign before the affairs of the 18th and 19th Brumaire, November 9 and 10. The new Government have accepted it. command of the army of Italy has been proposed to General Macdonald, but he declined it. Some speak of giving it to General Moreau.

The Confular Commission have sent into each of the 125 military divisions a Commissioner, chosen from among the adjourned deputies, charged with the deputation of the Constituted Authorities.

The King of Spain has written a pressing letter to his Neapolitan Majesty in favour of the unfortunate Dulomieu.

The French emigrants, not furnished with a permission to remain in Spain, have been informed by a new proclamation to quit that country without delay, under pain of being arrested, and delivered to the French Government.

By a letter from General Grenelle, of the 15th Brumaire, November 6, it appears, that the famous collection of medals, formed at Rome, has arrived at Marfeilles. It is confidered as one of the most complete and valuable in Europe. It is destined for the Museum at Paris.

We are affured that there have been some commotions at Thoulouse. The infurgents attacked the hostages and put them to death. Some fanatics have occasioned disturbances also in the department of l'Oife.

It is faid that the meeting of Bankers held yesterday, was called by Government for the purpose of demanding from them twelve millions of livres (half a million Sterling) for the public fervice till t Germinal, March 21. They did not hefitate to comply with this demand, and they will immediately pursue measures for carrying it into execution. The packet named le Patriote, coming out from Bastia on the 15th Vendemiaire, October 7. was ta-ken the same night by the English. The attack was so sudden that the Captain had not time to fink the difpatches.

CAPTURES BY THE FRENCH.

The Union, an English brig, 130 tons burthen, laden with coal, taken by les Cinq Amis privateer, of Boulogne, and carried into Dieppe.

The Providence, of Shields, 168 tons burthen, and nine men, laden with coals, bound from Shields to Guernsey, captured by la Revanche privateer, of Calais, Captain Beyard.

The John and Helena, of Ilfracomb, 100 tons burthen and fix men, from the Texel, with oats and barley, bound to London, taken by the fame privateer.

An English brig, the Courier of Greenock, 200 tons burthen, mounting two fix-pounders, forming part of a convoy from Lifbon, taken by the Grand Decide, of Bourdeaux, and fent to Port Malo. The three following prizes have ben taken by le Bougainville privateer, Captain Peter Dupont, and carried into Port-Malo:

The Eleonora brig, of Cork, 100 tons, and feven en, laden with butter, bound from Cork to London. The Charlotte, of Chichefter, 80 tons, from Cork, laden with the fame.

The Ocean, of the same place, 45 tons, and four men, from Cork, with falt beef and butter.

Generals Knox and Don have experienced the most distinguished attentions at Paris, upon the part of Berthier, the new Minister at War. Thefe officers were entertained in a very elegant and splendid manner at the Hotel de la Guerre, and in the course of the dinner there arrived cards, emblazoned with fingular art and ornaments, from Madanie Buonaparte, inviting the British Generals to a dinner the next day at the Luxemburgh. t was judged proper to decline this invitation.

Previous to our army leaving the Helder, General Daendals gave a dinner to all the English Officers, at which the greatest hospitality and good humour prevail-

Yesterday and to-day there was a great press of carriges of every kind to convey troops to Barnet, &c. on their way to Ireland. Something extraordinary must have happened there that has not transpired.

Don Juan De Langara, the Spanish Minister of Marine, has refigned his lituation, and the parte fenille of the Marine was given to the War Minister Cornel, who will probably keep it until the conclusion of a peace; fo that the two war departments will be united in one

Don Juan de Langara, who is a relation to the Prince of Peace, has received the Cross of Charles III. and is to be appointed a Privy Councillor of Spain.

Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, who is about to return to Europe, is to be succeeded on the Jamaica station by Lord Hugh Seymour; and Admiral Mitchell fucceeds the latter officer at the Leeward Islands.

Saturday being St Andrews day the Scots Corporation about 360 in number dined at the London Tavern, Mr Dundas in the chair. Earl Spencer, Lord Elcho, and a mimber of Noblemen and Gentlemen attended; the utmost harmony and conviviality prevailed. The Duke of Hamilton was absent, but he sent 100 guineas to the charity and about 500l. was collected at the meet-

A private letter from Berlin, received by the last Hamburgh mail, states, we know not on what good authority, that the object of Baron Jacobi's embally this country is no fecret in the best-informed circles in the Prussian capital. Among them it is reported, that Baron. Jacobi has such proposals to make for a general peace, as can fearcely be rejected by this Court. That, by virtue of fecularization, &c. Prussia is to receive some considerable acquisitions of territory upon the Continent. And, that, as Baron Jacobi has full powers for fettling the preliminaries of a general pacification, a Congress of the Electoral Deputies is to be called immediately after these outlines are 'acceded to. But if these negociations should fail, by virtue of a secret treaty between the Prussian Cabinet and the French Government, Prussia is to take an active part to compet the House of Austria to give peace to the Empire. Some of the French papers hold language exactly to the above effect, but we consider it as deferving of little credit.

FASHIONS FOR DECEMBER. LONDON WALKING DRESS.

Brown bear muff. Hair quite close behind, combed full and long over the forehead.

LONDON FULL DRESS.

1. Round bonnet of white and pink willow, trimmed with pink ribband. A coque plume, or a raifed offrich feather in front.

Round drefs of white muslin. Sleeves full and trimmed with lace. Over the body are full fronts of pink mustin or fatin, finishing behind in two points with a

2. Bonnet of black velvet, lined with pink, and turned up at the corners. Edged with chenille, and trimmed with pink ribband. Bow in front, and rose on the fide. the right shoulder.

Robe of white muslin, wrapped over to the left side, and fastened with a rose. Plain sleeves with full epaulets looped up. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

The colours are brown, purple, puce or fcarlet. Feathers of every description are universal, particular ly the offrich, flat and raifed. Rich flowers with velvet leaves, and gold and filver ornaments of all kinds are worn in head dreffes. The drefs of the hair continues very flat and short. Artificial hair is still very prevalent.

The beautiful and coffly lace caps described before are much worn by ladies of the first distinction.

Veils take the two extremes; fome are worn very shallow, not more than one, two, or three eighths, and others have been introduced and adopted two yards deep and upwards.

Silk policies are more prevalent than ever. Habits are much worn in the morning. Black velvet spencers or co:sets; plain black velvet cloaks, and black velvet handkerchiefs are general favourits. Fancy Barcelona handkerchiefs with fearlet and other coloured borders wadded, or lined with fur, are adopted as a fashionable fubilitute for cloaks.

Chambray muslins are a new and favourite article for dreffes.

White muffs are used in full dreffes.

The price of bullion at Hamburgh has rifen confider. ably, in confequence of Iome unufually large purchases made by the Jews, supposed to be for the new Consuls at Paris.

On Saturday night, a Comedy, (fo called) from th pen of Mrs Inchbald, founded upon a play by Kotzebue, was performed at the Theatre, Covent Garden for the first time, before a very numerous audience, called "The Wife Man of the East."

WHEAT.—Some difficulty having occurred in the maintenance of the French prisoners in this country, we understand that M. Niou, the French Commissary, has proposed to Ministry to import from France such sup plies of wheat for fale, the amount of which, when fold, should be adequate to the whole expences of the provifion and cloathing of the French prisoners of war now in this country, being about 26,000 men. This proposal having been agreed to, and the large depot of wheat collected at Hamburgh for the intended mainte. nance of our troops in Holland, being also to be forth. with imported, must tend to make a very material depression in the price of wheat in this country. In Helland there are also very large supplies of wheat lately arrived from Poland; and the ports between England and that country being again opened, under the Prof. fian and other neutral flags, we may expect that coefiderable cargoes of wheat will arrive from thence.

The French Journals which arrived on Saturday speak of " Lord Shelburn" as the person who is on his way to Paris, there to effectuate a peace. The N ble Marquis, to whom the allusion is made, may possibly be confidered as a fit match for the Abbe Sieve, but we must suppose the persons to be ignorant of ha powers who are unacquainted even with his title !

Such is the character of Sleyes with politicians of all descriptions, that he gets the credit of every bold fireke of revolutionary texture : and after being at the bottom of every former revolution, he now thirts his place, and gets to the top. How long he may remain there, pernaps his own ingenuity cannot discover. A rife to miratulous can be supported only by a series of prodigies!

Miss Sims, embracing Mrs Mills as Little Pickle on Saturday night, knocked her wig off, to the great entertainment of the Covent-Garden audience.

COMMON COUNCIL.

A Court of Common Council was held on Friday a Guildhaft, prefent the Lord Mayor, about 14 Aldermen, and near 200 Commoners, to take into confideration Mr Waithman's motion, to address his Majelly upon the failure of the late expedition to Holland; and also to elect a principal Land Coal Meter in the room of Mr Dixon, deceafed.—When the motion was made and feconded, it produced a very warm and animated debate, for a great length of time; after which an amendment was made by Mr Dixon, that most of the words of the original motion be left out, and that the following words be inserted in lieu thereof, viz, "Phat a motion having been made to address his Majesty on the failure of the late expedition to Holland, at would, if agreed to, be a difgrace to the Court, and an inful to the King.

DUBI.IN-Nov. 24.

In the Court of King's Bench, an application was made by Mr Curran, to admit Mr LEDWELL, & gentleman of 15000l. per annum, to bail until the next affizes for Nass; he being now in custody for a rape, commissed on this Surrow, a lady of respectability, rank, and fortune. The application was made so two grounds; first from a pretumption of the prisoners innocence, as arifing out of the profecutrix's own examinations. Secondly, on the politive affidavit of the prisoner himself, that his confinement would, as he really believed, endanger his life under his prefent indiff position (a severe fit of the gout); the presumption of innocence was inferred from this, that though the offence was charged to be committed on the 30th o-Sept. the informations were not given until the ziff of October; from no attempt of the prisoner to fly or efeape justice; and in support of this doctrine, the case of Lord Baltimore, the King v. Sir Wes. WYND-HAM, in Strange, &c. &c. In the prefent cafe it appeared, that Mr and Mrs Surron had been on a vifit at the prisoner's house; that the prisoner drove out Mrs Sutton in his cyrricle or gig, and drove the curricle into a fand-pie, and there committed the offence; that the returned with prisoner, spent that evening and next day at his house with her husband, and the disclosure was not until the 21st of October, the offence not having been committed before the 30th of September. From what dropped, however, from the Court, it would appear as if the delay in not lodging the information was accounted for in the examination.

In the course of the argument, th ther any case could be stated by the Bar, when illness alone was made the ground for an admission to bail ?-No case being cited, and after a long argument on the part of the Counfel for the prifoner, the Lord Chief Justice declined hearing the Counsel for the profecution, refuting on its part the prisoner to bail, but declined giving his final determination until one of his brothers had an opportunity of reading the examinations.

An unhappy female, totally devoid of cloathing, and equally to of the least ray of reason, was on Tuesday discovered in the forest near Rumsey, by some humane persons, who conveyed her to Mr Finch's, at Lavertock, near Salisbury, where all possible attention has been paid to her: but as her answers to every question have hitherto been very wild, it cannot be collected from whence or who she is. It is, however, conjectured, that the has been a person of some distinction, as her form is delicate, and her hands indicate that she has not been used to labour. It is supposed that she had been in the forest near a fortnight, subsisting on berries, her-

On the first night of Mrs Siddons's appearance this feason, a semale in the pit, and another in the gallery were thrown into hysterics by the irresidible effect of her exquisite performance.—How, indeed, is it pos-sible but that Mrs Siddons's acting should have the appearance of reality, when, in her extacy of grief, the becomes unmindful of her own person, actuated only by the feelings of the character which the affumes?

On the evening of Wednesday se'ennight Mr Mich. Armitrong, of Cambridge, hatter, through the darkness of the night lost his way in returning from Shotley Bridge towards home; and on Sunday morning last was found dead in a field near Shotley church, conjectured to have died through cold and fatigue. His family fuppoled that he had gone after a runaway-apprentice, and therefore no fearch was made for the first day or two. Some inhuman persons distinctly heard the cries of disrefs, in the night of Wednesday, but did dot give them-felves the trouble to go and examine the cause, or they might have saved the life of a useful man, who has left a pregnant widow to bewail his untimely end.

EDINBURGH-DECEMBER 5.

Two Hamburgh mails are now again due; their ar-rival is looked for with fome anxiety, to the Coman accounts are wanted to regulate those which appear in the Paris papers of the 24th of November, received on Saturday, respecting some recent movements that have taken place on the Rhine, where the Republican Commander in Chief pretends to have entirely turned the tide of affairs again in favour of the French, and to have recommenced the blockade of Philipsburg.

He infifts that all the columns of his army perfectly accomplished their object, and made 1,200 prisoners; but in the mean time his head-quarters were shill, on the 16th at Manheim, and he had displayed no disposition to advance. He sarther agrees that his column of the centre had met with with an obstinate resistance, but he makes no mention of his losses. Nevertheless, if his report is exact, he has refumed all the politions which he occupied before the retreat of the 3d, between the Rhine and the Neckar, and threatens to advance against Stutgard; but we prefume that the Austrians have only failen back in order to receive reinforcements, and that they will immediately re-advance by means of the reinforcements which the ARCHDUKE can fend to their

The retreat of the army of Italy, in confequence of the late victories of General Melas and KRAY, is admitted, as also that it has been obliged to seek its safein a junction with the division The appointment of the military command in chief in this quarter no one feems willing to accept.

Some advantages are faid to have been gained over the Chouans, but the accounts on this subject are not explicit. Six hundred republicans, we are told, defeated 2000 royalitis, but were only able to take one prisoner! General JOURDAN has been recalled from his fequestration, and the new Government, it is faid, continues popular !- See Extrads.

It appears by our port letters that Lord Bridport is about to return to port. There is no truth in the rumour of the royalists of Brittany having entered Mor-

Sunday, Capt. Noble, of the Sea Fencibles, arrived at the Secretary of State's office, having under his care two French Gentlemen, who came over from Picardy; one of whom is faid to be Monf. Moulins of the Ex-Directory.

This simple fact has given rife to several speculations on the subject of peace at the Stock Exchange, which, we confider as deferving of very little credit.

COURIER-OFFICE-Monday, Two o'clock We stop the press to say, a report is circulated of the Brest Fleet having declared for royalty. The news comes by a veffel from fea, but we give it no credit.

The trial-of DAVID HUNTER, accused of shooting a woman at Dalkeith, which was to have taken place on Monday before the High Court of Justiciary, was put off till the 23d curt. on account of the absence of a material witness, who, the Counsel stated, would prove that Hunter was infane.

Saturday James Leishman, William Hosack, Alex. Boyak, Alex. Marshall, and Robert Oliver, journeymen tailors, for a combination to raife their wages; and JAMES DAVIDSON, a gentleman's fervant, accused of stealing money from public houses while fitting drinking, were ferred with their indict-ments to fland trial before the High Court of Justiciary on the 16th instant.

Among the numerous focial meetings affembled on Saturday, to commemorate the feltival of the Tutelar Saint of Scotland, the Caledonian Lodge was particularly diffinguished. Upwards of 60 of the Brethren dined together in Lestie's, where an elegant entertainment was provided. The Hon. Col. VILLIERS very polite-ly gave the affiftance of the band of his regiment, who were members of the Lodge, and their exquisite performances contributed much to the amusement of the meeting. Mr RUPERTIE's furpriting execution on the bugle, and some beautiful recitations by JAMMIE THOM-son, the Kinleith poet, delivered in a manner simple and imprefive, as his poems, and both novel, on such occasions, gave universal satisfaction. Jammie was dubbed bard to the Lodge, and it is hoped the craft will pay that attention to this second Burns, which is dictated by their principles, and fanctioned by his merit.

Friday, about one o'clock afternoon, a most impudent thest was committed at Newington. A Lady had thrown up her bed-room window, which is on the ground floor, and had gone up flairs for a few minutes. In the mean time a girl, about thirteen years of age, entered at the window, (while an older one flood without,) and took away a watch, gold ring, one dozen of tea spoons, and fundry other articles.—A boy, about eleven years old, saw the youngest come out; and several people were patting at the inflant. The spoons were offered for sale immediately after.

On the 28th ult. DONALD CAMERON, alias Me. ILVOIL, in the Island of Mall, and county of Argyll, was accused before the Sherist-depute of Argyllshire, and a respectable jury, for the crime of sheep-stealing. Af-ter the criminal letters were read, a petition was pre-sented for the pannel, praying for banishment, from the county for life, which was objected to by the Procurator Fiscal, on account of the extent of the theft alledged against the pannel meriting a higher punishment; at fame time, in confideration of certain circumstances, he deferted the diet, pro loco et tempore; in confequence whereof, the pannel was recommitted to jail on a freih

The Court then proceeded to the trial of CHARLES CAMPBELL at Craigmurrel, accused of having, under cloud of night, in February last, affaulted WILLIAM MORRIES, mafon, at the Crinan Canal, on the high road between Kilmichael and Loehgilphead, with a bayonnet, and of wounding him therewith in different parts of the body, to the immenent danger of his life, Several witnesses were examined for the Crown, and in exculpation of the pannel, and the evidence was very accurately funimed up on both fides. The July returned a verdict, finding the pannel guilty, on which the Court sentenced him to one month's imprisonment, there-after to pay a fine, and to be kept in confinement till he found fecurity, under penalty, to keep the peace in future. Agents for the Crown, the Procurator Filcal of the county, and Mr ARCHIBALD BELL. For the pannel, Meffes. NEIL M'GIBBON, and DUNCAN CAMP-DELL.

Last week, the Magistrates of Greenock fined two men in eight pounds sterling, for breaking lamps, and bound them, with fecurities, to keep the peace for two years; being also convicted of having broken lamps in Cartsdyke, which is not within the jurifdiction of the Magistrates, is referved to the Justices of the Peace to fine farther according to the offence.

The CERES, M'INTOSH, is arrived in Leith Roads from London. This vessel was chased by a French lugger privateer, on Thursday the 28th ult. for fix hours, off the Humber;—saw the privateer take two brigs, and fend them off to the eastward.

The privateer is a long low vessel, with a staving

On Friday morning the Ceres was again chaced on thore under the battery at Burlington. On Monday fe'ennight, Mrs. DENNISON, the wife of Mr Dennison, of Poncerfract-park, farmer, was found dead in the cellar under the dwelling-house. A great number of bruifes appeared upon her head as if they had been occasioned by a hammer. The coroner's inquest fat upon her body, and brought in a verdict of wilful murder, against some person or persons unknown.

Monday the Corporation of Bakers in Glasgow, voted 600l. to the fund for procuring grain from foreign markets. The Deacon, Mr ROBERT JAMIESON, alfo fubscribed 720l. for the individuals of that Corporation.

There are now no less than 150 houses building in the city and fuburbs of Glasgow, and a number nearly equal has, we are told, been built annually during the lait ten years ;- supposing each house to contain three families, of five people, (which is thought a low computation,) Glafgow must have received, in that short period, an increase of 1500 houses and 22,500 inha-

Extract of a Letter from the Continent, dated Nov. 11.

" The mifunderstanding between the Austrian and Russian Generals is no longer a profound seeres; nobody imputes the cause to the ARCHDURE CHARLES, but to this peremptory orders. The Russians are cantioned between the Danube and the Leeck, and PRINCE SUwarrow has his head-quarters, at least for the present, at Augsbourg; his army is said to consist of 45,000 men, Conne's small corps included; and General BAUER (a young man under 30 years, but of great merit) is to lucceed to General Harmann in the com-ARCHDURE CHARLES has removed from Donnaischeingen to Stockach, but I would fain hope that he has approached fouthward, in order to have a personal interview, in some intermediate place, perhaps at Ulm or Ravensbourg, with the great Russian veteran. A letter from a Condean General, to a friend in this town, ter from a Condean General, to a friend in this town, contains the following narration, to which the writer was a witness; we shall suppose it embellished by French ingenuity; the very probable part being perfectly characteristic of the brave hero may be credited. Suwar-Row was at Memmingen in his way from the Grisons to Augsbourg, when he was met by a General Officer on miffion to him from the ARCHDUKE CHARLES; the proposal of the latter was, for Suwarrow and his army to attack Massena's army from the fide of the little Cantons, and that he (the ARCHDURE) would make a demonstration on the opposite side at Zurich .-In company, the reteran returned an answer to this effect:
That at Vienna he would throw hirafelf at the feet of the ARCHDUKE CHARLES, "but that commanding a Ruffian army he was on an e-" quality; that if the ARCHDURE wished to concert " any measures to favour the common cause, he was " ready to have an interview at any intermediate sta-" tion; but that he was warranted to reproach the General in Chief of the Austrian army upon the Rhine with nor having suisilled the part of the plan which had been agreed upon; for, if it had been executed, he (the Akchduke) would now have been spursuing the French in Alface, and himself (the Mareschal) pursuing a flying enemy in Franche-Comte; that in "execution of that agreement, he had croffed the Alps within the time preferibed; that he was opposed by the French on several parts of the march; that he beat and purfued them; but that the Austrians hafrom Russia direct, at the instant of their arrival, and being attacked by a far superior sorce, they submitted to great loss, and were forced to retire beyond the Rhine. That in Italy, he commanded the united armies; obtained a series of rapid victories; restored all the dethroned Princes to the possession of their territories; destroyed, dispersed, or made prisoners all the French armies and garrifons, which he committed in charge to the Austrian Generals; and now, although an ally and auxiliary, he finds the Rushan armies in the dominions of the Emperor of Germany, without aid, without provisions, without cloathing for the troops; that he did not understand the meaning of making a demonstration; but that if the Archduke would consent to make an effectual " attack upon the French army in Switzerland, he wattack upon the French army in Switzerland, he would immediately co-operate in fuch a measure, and did not doubt of fucces, &c."

"It is alledged, and it is supposed on grounds, that the Archbuka sas demanded his dismission, because disapproxing, he does not like to execute the measures of the cabinet, and he cannot be pleased to be a witness of the open diflike which is sublisting between the allied armies, which may terminate in a dangerous antipathy."

GORN EXCHANGE, LONDON, Dec. 2.

WE had a confiderable fupply of English Wheat at market this day, which met a heavy fale at 5s, per quarter declension; but, as very little Foreign has come in, and as few country buyers appeared, prices are nearly maintained.

No Ry on fale; but it was enquired after, at 63s, per quarter. Fine Barley meets a brisk fale, at from 6s, to 5s, per quarter advance; but inferior samples are full very duit, and but little amendment in prices can be noted. Malt is also 4s, per quarter dearer.

We have waited the remination of the harvest in our circle before making a report upon it, being desirous to leave as little as possible to conjecture in such a season as the present: full two-thirds of the corn grown in this district were gather and in about a month ago, and all that now remains out is tri

The crop, we are sorry to say, is a fourth part defficient of an average produce, inferior in quality, and bad in condition; we have, however, seen samples of every kind of grain that would pass current in an ordinary year, and we hope these will prove pretty numerous: but none ought to be shipped during winter, even to the nearest markets, without being kindried, which operation we have prepared ourselves to perform in the most approved manner followed in Ireland, where it is so successfuly practised.

Barley has attained more perfection than any other grain, yet it is not so heavy as it generally averages. Very little damage was done to it in the field, but a considerable part has suffered from being too hastily carried in.

The oats have been got up in tolerably good state, but are from 4 to 5 lbs per bushel deficient in weight, and nearly a fifth part short of their wonted produce of meat.

Of beans and pease, a good many have heen pretty well got in, and some are yet abroad: However, the quantity will not be very short, nor is the quality despicable, and the condition will be much improved after they have remained a little time in the stack. in the stack.

LATELY observed in your newspaper a letter recommending an enquiry into what becomes of the money collected at the doors of the different places of worship in this city and suburbs.

Such an enquiry is certainly very proper, and highly expedient, when the expence of supporting the Charitable listitutions is so much increased. This money, which is professedly collected for the poor, and given by the donors for their relief. collected for the poor, and given by the donors for their relief, certainly belongs to them, and cannot in justice he applied to any other purpose.—But, I have been told of the managers of some congregation, who, after allotting a very small part of it to their poor, apply almost the whole of it to extinguish the debt of the congregation, or some tailar purpose. This certainly calls for enquiry, and there are many bestevolity persons here who need only the hint to make them step as ward, the Lord Provost, the Clergy, and the Managers of the Charity-Workhouse. &c.

Charity-Workhouse, &c.

I know some will say, that the money received at their chaple doors is not collected for the poor; but the public should know what congregations these are, to prevent strangers from giving their money for purposes they do not intend.

I know many of the Managers of the different congregations will be happy to remedy what is here complained of.

If you think proper to insert this letter, perhaps it may render a service to the poor—I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Cour correspondent will observe we have omitted that part of his letter which suggests to the Magistrates to make regulations with respect to collections, because we believe the power of the Magistrates does not extend in these matters beyond the jurisdiction of the city.

-COURT OF SESSION .-

Friday, the Court had under consideration a petition from John Douglas, farmer in Kilpatrick, and others, trustees and managers of the congregation of Burgher Seceders in the parish of Kilpatrick, and the Reverend W.M. Watson, minister of said congregation, for the recal of an interdict granted by the Lord Ordinary, Ankerville, "obtained (says the petition) the Lord Ordinary, Ankerville, "obtained (says the petition) surreptitionsly, the said interdict having been granted upon a bill of suspension, presented by three persons, once members of the congregation, without any statement on the part of the petitioners having been liaid before the Lord Ordinary." The facts upon which the petitioners rest their claim, are stated in the petition, in substance as follows:—

"The Rev. Mr Watson has for near ten years officiated as minister o' a congregation of Burgher Seceders in the parish of Kilpatrick, and has met with the approbation of his congregation. For some years past, differences have subsisted amongst the ministers of the Associate Synod of Burgher Seceders upon points connected with important religious and gregation. For some years pass, uncerences have subsisted amongst the ministers of the Associate Synod of Burgher Seceders, upon points connected with important religious and political doctrines. Amongst other topics, is that which respects the power of the civil magistrate, specified in the 23d chapter of the Confession of Faith, which contains doctrines founded on, and agreeable to the Scriptures, as Presbyterians have hitherto believed, and, as it is hoped, sincere Christians and loyal subjects will continue to believe. At last, it unfortunately happened, that many of the reverend members of the Associate Burgher Synod so far yielded to the torrent of innovation, that they have thrown loose the whole important doctrines contained in that chapter, and have, by what is termed by some a conciliatory measure, left them at the mercy of every disciple of democracy.

"The Rev. Mr Watson (however anxious he was to prevent disagreement and rupture), yet came at last to be completely

"The Rev. Mr Watson (however anxious he was to prevent disagreement and rupture), yet came at last to be completely convinced that the measures adopted by the Associate Synod were such as to strike against their own standards, hostile to the religious principles he had always held, and in their consequences injurious to the cause of loyalty and good order. He therefore expressed his disapprobation of these measures, and informed his Session and Congregation of the opinion he entertained. In that opinion, the majority of his Session, and his Congregation, with the exception of a few individuals, concurred. Accordingly, though some few persons, members of the Congregation, declared themselves to be of a different opinion from their Pastor, yet the great hody of the Congregation adhered to him. Some members indeed of the Congregation adhered to him. Some members indeed of the Congregation left it, and on the next Sunday, the beginning of last month (October) went to hear another Burgher preacher, who had come to preach in a mill in the neighbourhood, and whose sentiments were different from those of Mr. Watson, he being one of those vulgarly called New-Light Men; whereas Mr. Watson has thought it his duty to walk in the good old path. Mr. Watson, however, af er this, went out to officiate and p rform his duty as minister of this Burgher congregation, and the great body of the congregation continued to adhere to him, and to attend dihowever, af er this, went out to officiate and p rform his duty as minister of this Burgher congregation, and the great body of the congregation continued to adhere to him, and to attend di-vine worship, as the man blace of orship at the usual place of meeting"
ters remained on this footing during the months of October and November, till, to their astonishment, on the even-ing of Saturday the 23d of November the interdict was preof Saturday the 23d of November the interdict was prosented to some members of the congregation, the periodices were lattle versant in such proceedings, and were desirous of complying respectively with what the paper in question seemed to enjoin. Accordingly, neither Mr Watson, nor the other petititioners, his congregation, entered the place of meeting on sunday following. The petitioners decline entering into the petititioners, his congregation, entered the place of meeting on Sunday following. The petitioners decline entering into the merits of the cause, until they shall give in their answers to the bill of saspension; in the mean time they apply for a recal of the interdict, which they state to have been most improperly obtained by their opponents.

The Court, after hearing Counsel on both sides, recalled the interdict, and found the interdictors liable in ten guineas of expences.
